ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express hereby my gratitude to Professor Dr. Francis Gendre, from the Institute of Applied Psychology (IPAUL), and to Professor Dr. Simon-Pierre Jacot, from the Business School (EHEC) of the University of Lausanne for their advices and their close attention toward the elaboration of the Time Series Package.

I am also very much indebted to my colleagues and faculty members of both institutions for their various comments and sometimes septicisms about the subject, which were perceived as many encouragements to fulfill the undertaken task.

Lausanne, December 1984.
