Preface

The 4th European Conference on Information Literacy (ECIL) was co-organized by the Department of Information Management of Hacettepe University, Turkey, the Department of Information and Communication Sciences of Zagreb University, Croatia, and the Association of Libraries of Czech Universities – ALCU, Czech Republic. Inclusive society being the main theme, ECIL 2016 aimed to bring together researchers, information professionals, media specialists, educators, policy-makers and all related parties from around the world to exchange knowledge and experience and to discuss current issues and recent developments.

The main theme of the fourth conference was “Information Literacy in the Inclusive Society.” In all, 259 papers were submitted to the conference. Contributions came from 50 different countries (Albania, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Botswana, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Iran, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Mexico, Moldova, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Taiwan, Turkey, UK, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, USA).

All submissions were subjected to a double-blind review process. This book consists of a total of 71 papers addressing many different issues.

Starting with the host organization, the Association of Libraries of Czech Universities, we are grateful to several other organizations for their support. We would like to express our deep gratitude to all sponsors for their generous support. Our special thanks go to UNESCO and IFLA, two major organizations that contributed tremendously to the development of information literacy, for providing their patronage.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the conference keynote speakers Tara Brabazon and Jan A.G.M. van Dijk; the invited speakers Annemaree Lloyd, Ola Pilerot and Vít Šisler; the authors and presenters of papers, best practices, PechaKuchas, posters, and workshops; and the session chairs. We would like to thank and acknowledge the hard work of the members of the Standing and Program Committees, who invested their time generously to make this event happen.

Our editorial team should also be acknowledged here. Special thanks to Joumana Boustany, Esther Grassian, Diane Mizrahi, Loriene Roy, and Tolga Çakmak for their hard work and valuable editorial contributions.

Last but not least, we would like to thank the local Organizing Committee.
