ECIL 2017 aimed to bring together researchers, information professionals, employers, media specialists, educators, policymakers, and all related parties from around the world to exchange knowledge and experience and discuss current issues and recent developments.

The main theme of the fifth conference was "Workplace Information Literacy." In all, 358 proposals were submitted to the conference. Contributions came from 50 different countries (Australia, Austria, Belgium, Botswana, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Croatia, Cuba, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Kenya, Lebanon, Lithuania, Mexico, Moldova, The Netherlands, Norway, Oman, Pakistan, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, UK, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, USA).

All submissions were subjected to a double-blind review process. This book consists of a total of 84 selected papers that address many different issues.

Starting with the host organization, the Information Literacy Association, we are grateful to many organizations for their support. We would like to express our deep gratitude to all sponsors for their generous support. Our special thanks go to UNESCO and IFLA, two major organizations that have contributed tremendously to the development of information literacy, for providing their patronage.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the conference keynote speakers Bonnie Cheuk and Andrew Whitworth; the invited speakers Jean-Philippe Accart and Stéphane Goldstein; the authors and presenters of papers, best practices, PechaKuchas, posters, workshops; and the session chairs. We would like to thank and acknowledge the hard work of the members of the Standing and Program Committees, who invested their time generously to make this event happen.

Our editorial team Sonja Špiranec and Joumana Boustany as well as language editors Esther Grassian, Diane Mizrachi, and Loriene Roy should also be acknowledged here. Special thanks for their hard work and valuable editorial contributions.

Last but not least we would like to thank the local Organizing Committee.
