Dear colleagues:

The issue at hand is another ‘heavy’ issue as we approach the end of 2020. We have kept our promise to empty the queue of accepted papers, and this will be completely accomplished with the next and final double issue of Volume 100.

Moreover, learning from experience, the paper review process has become more rigorous and more detailed. The aim is to publish the best of the best papers. This is the only, one way, to the top.

We thank you for your support, we are here to serve you.

Enjoy the issue.
