

ARTICULATION OF COMPUTER SCIENCE CURRICULA AT THE COMMUNITY COLLEGES AND THE UNIVERSITIES

Chairman: Lawrence A. Jehn
University of Dayton

Panelists: James E. Brandeberry
Wright State University, Dayton

B. Albert Friedman
Sinclair Community College, Dayton

An example of a solution to the problem of a student majoring in Computer Science/Data Processing at a Community College transferring to a university and continuing his degree program will be presented. Audience participation will be encouraged.